

FAQs

How do I submit the proposal?

➤ Proposals must be submitted by email to applications@plcntu.org . No Proposals will be accepted after the deadline.

When is the application due?

➤ Proposals must be submitted by Friday, November 21, 2025, at 5PM ET.

When will I be notified of RFP/RFO decisions?

➤ Notification of award will be made in mid-December 2025

May I resubmit my proposal?

➤ No, Applicants must submit ALL documents related to the RFP/RFO in ONE (1) email. Proposals that do not include all the required documents will not be eligible for review.

When will the contract begin?

➤ Implementation of contract begins January 1, 2026.

After being awarded, what will you need to provide?

➤ Agencies awarded will need to submit proof of banking information for direct payment purposes, a certificate of insurance(if applicable), and clearances (Ensure to follow ALL the stipulations in the RFP/RFO)

What awards are out there?

- Family Engagement Contractor (up to $50,000) – January.7?868?to.September.96?868?
- Program Food Contractor (up to $240,000) – January.7?868?to.September.96?868?
- VOLT – Automotive Contractor (get to PLC by October 25th) up to $100,000 – January.7?868?to.September.96?868?

It doesn't appear to have specific sections for items such as lunch, dinner, or other meal-related details. Could you please confirm whether we can include these details in our own budget template, or should we modify the one provided?

➤ The answer the question, yes. You can include food under activities if it's an activity-related cost or under other direct costs. The budget simply has cost categories and the vendor adds the individual costs they need under each section.